14 On December 21, 2011, the Magistrate Judge filed a Report and 15 Recommendation (#48) recommending that Defendants' Motion for 16 Summary Judgment (#37) be granted. Objections to the Report and 17 Recommendation were due within fourteen days. On January 20, 2012,
18 Plaintiff filed a Motion for Extension of Time to File Objections
19 (#50), requesting an additional sixty (60) days within which to file
20 objections to the Report and Recommendation (#48). On January 25,
21 2012, the Court granted Plaintiff's Motion for Extension of Time
22 (#50), allowing Plaintiff up to March 23, 2012 to file objections.
23 On February 7, 2012, the Court issued a Minute Order (#52) ordering 24 that the objections be filed by March 9, 2012, rather than March 23, 25 2012, due to the looming CJRA deadline to rule on motions.

26 The Magistrate Judge recommends that summary judgment be 27 granted in favor of Defendants because the scope and manner in which 28 the strip search against Plaintiff was conducted were not

1 unreasonable. No timely objections were filed to the Report &
2 Recommendation (#48). The Report and Recommendation (#48) is well-
3 taken, and is APPROVED AND ADOPTED. Defendants' Motion for Summary
4 Judgment (#37) with respect to Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment claim
5 related to the alleged unreasonable strip search is GRANTED. No
6 other claims remain in this action.

7 The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.
